Presents

The Attorney-Client Privilege is Not Dead – But it Does Have its Limits

Wednesday, June 24, 2020

9:00 am – 10:15 pm (By Zoom)

Because of COVID-19 related restrictions, this CLE will be offered in a virtual setting, via Zoom. To register for this CLE webinar, click the link provided to receive a link to log in.

This program is intended to discuss the scope of the attorney-client and attorney work product privileges as they apply to practitioners in the federal and state courts in New York. In addition to the legal principles and standards applicable to the attorney-client privilege the presenters will discuss the use of and types of privilege logs, and two of our Northern District Magistrate Judges will address how they handle disputes over privileged documents that are withheld from disclosure over the objection of another party.

Presenters:

Hon. David E. Peebles

United States Magistrate Judge, Northern District of New York

Hon. Andrew T. Baxter

United States Magistrate Judge, Northern District of New York

Jonathan B. Fellows, Esq.

Bond, Schoeneck & King, PLLC

Liza R. Magley, Esq.

Bond, Schoeneck & King, PLLC
